

Captions for 2017-2018 Greater Ithaca Art Trail Images for Press (on ArtTrail.com, “Visit Ithaca” page)

Contact:

Robin Schwartz, Program Director
Community Arts Partnership of Tompkins County
607-273-5072, ext. 20
programs@artspartner.org (faster way to contact)
ArtsPartner.org

BrockmanAutumnLight and BrockmanStudio

Domenica Brockman’s oil painting “Autumn Light” is one of many in her Trumansburg studio that depicts the effect of light on trees in the Finger Lakes area.

GotowkaPortrait

Fiber Artist Sarah Gotowka in her Trumansburg “Luna Fiber” studio, a fully equipped weaving studio in Trumansburg. See floor looms in action, and even try weaving yourself! You can also learn more about our natural dye farm and our upcoming classes!

HatchStudio

Grab a map, get on the road, enjoy the beautiful fall foliage with artists as your destination! Look for the Green Road Signs!

IhnkenMuscovy

One of Mary Beth Ihnken’s amazing animal paintings you can see in her 1890’s converted barn and studio in Brooktondale.

KeelerLightonBales

Visit Brian Keeler’s new “North Star Art Gallery” in his Italianate Victorian Home on Snyder Hill Road to see hundreds of paintings in his “painterly realism” style. (The attached is “Light on Bales,” oil on canvas, 30” x 36”)

OttosonPendants

Visit Graham Ottoson at her “Gourdlandia” studio on West Hill. See where the gourds grow, make a gourd necklace, and see all of her amazing gourd creations!

ScavuzzoStudio and ScavuzzoBlockingGlass

Visit Rob Scavuzzo’s glass blowing studio in Newfield and learn about the glass making process

StevensAquaticSymphony

Ivy Stevens-Gupta’s large (48” x 48”) acrylic “Aquatic Symphony” painting is one of many in her Cayuga Heights studio. Take a peek into the world of a contemporary artist!